Neum is a holiday resort on the southern part of the Adriatic Sea, in the bay of Mali Ston and Neum channel. The Adriatic Sea between Split and Dubrovnik is gorgeous, very clean, and this is where Bosnia and Herzegovina has 24 km of its coastline.

In the waters of Neum high-quality fish (bream, dentex) and mussels, which are a culinary specialty of this part of the Adriatic coast.

Neum has a Mediterranean climate, with many sunny days. The sea temperature in summer reaches 27°, and the winters are mild, with rarely any snow.

The richness and diversity of cultural and historical heritage of Neum and its hinterland is witnessed by many visible archaeological sites from different periods: prehistoric settlements and crypts dating from the Bronze and Iron Ages, traces of ancient times, medieval churches and villages and necropolis of Bosnian medieval tombstones - stećak.

In the immediate vicinity of Neum there are famous tourist destinations: Mostar (80 km), Dubrovnik (65 km), Počitelj (60 km), Blagaj (70 km), Ston (25 km), Međugorje (60 km), Kravice (50 km) , Hutovo blato (40 km), Korčula (90 km).

Neum is located 60 km from Dubrovnik (80 km from the Dubrovnik airport), 70 km from Mostar and Međugorje and 30 km from Ploče and Metković, both of which have railway stations.

The Neum region cuts Croatia into two non-contiguous parts. This is a result of the Treaty of Karlowitz of 1699. In this treaty the Republic of Dubrovnik gave the Neum region to the Ottoman Empire to ensure that it would not border on the encroaching Venetian Republic.

The fact that the border into Bosnia and Herzegovina must be crossed to reach the southernmost region of Croatia has caused the Croatian Government to plan a bridge from Klek to Pelješac to circumvent the area.
